Places I Would Like to Visit

Havasu Falls

I would like to visit Havasu Falls in Arizona because the waterfalls, clear blue water, and sights in general are breathtaking. I also enjoy hiking, so this would be an ideal vacation spot for me.

London

I would like to visit London, England some day because I feel like the city is full of history and culture that I would love to experience. I know people who have studied abroad here and loved their experiences.
